

Roundtable

April 2, 2004

Lucks Conference Room

The roundtable discussions will focus on “Types of teaching strategies and when they work.” To get the conversation started, before attending this Roundtable, please bring answers to the following questions:

1. What is a teaching strategy you have used in your course that you find leads to effective student learning? What is the content area that the students learned when you used this technique?
2. What is a teaching strategy you tried in your course that you found led to poor student learning? What is the content area that the students were to learn when you used this technique?
3. Is there an area of content in one of your courses that you know the students struggle in learning? If so, what teaching strategies have you tried to help them learn it?