Universität Salzburg

Originally founded in 1622, Universität Salzburg was reconstituted and now comprises four schools: Arts and Humanities; Divinity; Law; and Natural Sciences and is the biggest institution of higher learning in Salzburg. The university occupies several buildings all over Salzburg. In the Altstadt (old city), former parts of the Residenz Palace, the Toskanatrakt and in the Kapitelgasse now house university meeting rooms. The total enrollment at Universität Salzburg is 11,000 students.

Salzburg is the fourth-largest city in Austria and the capital of the federal state of Salzburg. Salzburg's "Old Town" (Altstadt) with its world famous baroque architecture is one of the best-preserved city centres north of the Alps, and was listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1997. The city is noted for its Alpine setting. With three universities, Salzburg is filled with the liveliness of a large student population. Public transportation is excellent. From Salzburg, you can easily reach the mountains, meadows and lakes of the Austrian Alps, see the Blue Danube, drift through the old world charms of Budapest or cross the Alps into the medieval villages and gentle hills of Northern Italy.

Universidad Privada Boliviana

UPB was created by the Bolivian business community to generate entrepreneurs and fulfill the need of private firms for skilled management and technical professionals with the following vision: To be the best university in Bolivia and a reference for quality in education in Latin America.

- UPB has two campuses; the first campus is located in the city of La Paz, one of the highest cities in the world with an altitude of 3,649 meters (about 12,000 feet) above sea level. La Paz is in the northeast part of the country, surrounded by multicolored mountains with moon like formations. The climate is dry with no humidity and has a mild summer and a unique sunny winter with clear blue skies.
- Cochabamba is a city in central Bolivia, located in a valley bearing the same name in the Andean Mountain Range. It is the capital of the Cochabamba Department and the fourth largest city in Bolivia.
