“This semester to me represented something similar to a garden. It was an escape from me. In America, people can make an influence on my personality and expect me to be a certain way. However, in a different country, I had the chance to realize who I really was and learn about myself from telling others who I am.”

Arcadia University - University of Limerick

This vibrant and innovative campus is a popular hit with international students. You will have easy access to the city's exciting mix of historical and cultural attractions, as well as to the magnificently scenic landscapes of the surrounding countryside in the West of Ireland. The integrated living and learning experience at Limerick provides a wonderful opportunity to get to know Irish and other international students as well as the local community through campus-community activities.

- Location: Limerick, Ireland
- Living Arrangements: On-campus housing or apartments

Study in Santiago (IES)

As the capital of Chile, a country with one of the strongest economies in Latin America, Santiago is the industrial and financial center of Chile and home to more than 7 million people, making it an ideal place to observe rapid development and its effects on culture and society. Experience first-hand how historic and modern architecture, fine and folk arts, a dynamic business sector, and fascinating history come together in this electrifying metropolis.

- ◆ Location: Santiago, Chile
- ◆ Living Arrangements: Homestays

Bond University (The Education Abroad Network)

Bond University offers a study abroad experience quite distinct from other Australian universities with its small class size and modern campus. With the lowest student-teacher ratio in Australia, Bond University is perfect for students who are looking to study abroad in a highly supportive environment with small, focused classes.

Outside the classroom you'll find that Bond's location on the Gold Coast is ideal for exploring the environment that makes Australia so unique and is home to some of Australia's most stunning beaches.

- Location: Gold Coast, Australia
- Living Arrangements: on-campus housing or apartments
