Université de Fribourg, Suisse

Study in the beautiful and exciting city of Fribourg! Having official languages of both French and German, this central city offers every comfort one would expect of the Swiss. Like its sister city Bern, Fribourg has preserved its medieval center, and invites students and visitors alike to visit any one of its unique and diverse museums, theaters or its international film festival. Students interested in skiing, ice hockey or basketball will especially be attracted to the sports that the city has to offer!

- Location: Fribourg, Switzerland

University of the South Pacific (ISEP)

The University of the South Pacific's Main Campus and headquarters is located in the south-west Pacific Ocean. Suva is the capital city and is about 5 minute bus ride from the university. Located on the Eastern side of the main Island, the university is situated alongside the waterfront and receives cool breeze throughout the year.
