INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

IES Abroad Berlin - Language & Area Studies

Specially designed to improve your German language skills, this program draws upon Berlin's rich culture and traditions to connect your coursework with the living history of the city. IES Abroad courses are taught in German by local faculty, and a variety of academic options are available at local universities. You can also add international work experience to your résumé while earning credit by participating in an internship placement and accompanying academic seminar.

- Location: Berlin, Germany
- Living Arrangements: apartments or homestay

Paris, French Studies (IES)

With its grand boulevards, world-famous monuments, and iconic skyline (think: the Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame, and Sacré Coeur!), it will be difficult to leave this charmingly romantic city. Along with its many historic world-renowned museums, art flourishes in Paris in the form of public gardens, sidewalk cafés, and outdoor markets, fragrant with fresh fruit and pastries.

- ◆ Living Arrangements: Homestays

University Spain, Fundación José Ortega y Gasset, Toledo (Arcadia)

If the idea of studying in a former 16th century convent in the heart of the historical district of one of Spain's loveliest and most culturally-rich cities appeals to you, the widely-respected Fundación José Ortega y Gasset in Toledo is a good choice. The Fundación's location puts you within walking distance to some of Spain's most noteworthy synagogues, mosques, and churches.

- Location: Toledo, Spain
- Living Arrangements: on-campus housing or homestays
