

2021 ELMHURST UNIVERSITY SUMMER BAND CAMP WIND AND PERCUSSION AUDITIONS

Who Must Audition:

- All students seeking participation in the Elmhurst University Summer Band Camp must submit an audition video.

Audition Requirements:

- There are two short excerpts from etudes to be performed on the audition for each instrument, one lyrical and one technical. Percussion have three excerpts to perform, one each for snare drum, timpani and mallets.

Audition Video Requirements:

- Many students have access to different qualities of recording equipment. In an effort to make auditions as fair as possible, all auditions are to be recorded on a smartphone.
- Test the distance from the smartphone to make sure you get the best audio recording possible on your device before recording your audition. Make sure you are visible at all times.
- Say your name at the beginning of the recording and then record all selections without pause. You are welcome to introduce each of the selections.
- Play back the recording to make sure everything was recorded. You may record as many times as you wish to obtain the best recording submit before you submit your final video.
- Go to the following link to complete the audition form and upload your video file:
