

Photo Scavenger Hunt

Use the clues below to discover our campus together. Once you solve the clue, go to the location and take a fun (but safe) group photo. Post on Instagram, tag @elmhurstadmission and Hashtag #BluejayBash21. Points for creative photos, best team name (and team hashtag), and most clues solved! Can you find all 20?

Clues

1. Rumor has it you walk in a figure 8 around these gates at midnight with your textbooks stacked on your head you will gain knowledge.
2. The students call this the ashtray but it's actually Kranz Forum and in it you can pose with the author of the Serenity Prayer.
3. Large numbers of our alumni and employees have gotten married here.
4. Literally the oldest building on the campus.
5. This bell used to be in our oldest building; now it gets rung when EU wins a big game.
6. The oldest and largest residence hall on campus
7. There are two places one can get caffeinated on campus.
8. Your dream of performing in a former sawmill can be realized in this building.
9. A fun part of doing science at Elmhurst is looking into space here.
10. Upper class students love to live in our newest residence hall.
11. Once was the chapel now filled with music.
12. You cannot shop in this mall.
13. The EU arboretum formally began in 1966 with the planting of this oak tree; the Memorial tree is front of the original library.
14. The Founders wanted you to Lounge and warm your feet here.
15. Yew would never believe that Elmhurst U is home to the only one of its kind; look behind what is left of Kranz Hall.
16. There are two things that prove MLK Jr. spoke on campus.
17. Two locations you can literally score a touchdown.
18. This circle is usually filled with running water.
19. Relax, observe all the science majors from this gazebo.
20. You can lie down and take a selfie on the largest EU shield on campus.