Lesson Refund Policy

Due to unforeseen circumstance (such as COVID-19), lessons may need to be conducted online. If that is necessary, no refunds will be made.

Classes cancelled from a closing of Elmhurst University due to weather or another emergency will not be made up. Elmhurst University Closing Information: (630) 617-3777

It is the student's responsibility to notify the instructor 24 hours prior to a missed lesson. Instructors will not make-up more than 1 lesson per term. Lessons will be made up during the scheduled Make-Up Week at end of each term, or per the instructor's schedule and space availability.

Refunds will not be made for missed lessons. Students may only receive a refund if officially withdrawn from the Community Music Program by the second week of the term. Withdrawal requests must be made in writing. Partial refunds may be issued at the discretion of the instructor if student suffers injury or illness that prevents completion of the term.

Private Individual Lessons

Whether you're a beginner or an experienced musician, the Elmhurst University Community Program offers private lessons to promote your growth as a musician.

The Community Music Program provides private instruction in voice and many instruments. Our students vary in age and skill range. Recommended age for beginning private lessons is 8.

Students enrolled in private lessons must have their own instrument or have regular access to an instrument for practice. Traditional acoustic piano is preferred for piano students at all levels.

Private lessons are taught in four sessions:

Fall (12 weeks), Winter (8 weeks), Spring (12 weeks), and Summer (8-10 weeks).

The lessons are scheduled weekly, for 30, 45, or 60 minutes (per the instructor's schedule and space availability).

Registration & Payment is due AFTER confirming time with faculty.

Missed Lessons, Cancellations, and Make-Up Lessons

It is the responsibility of the instructor and the student to jointly agree on the total number, and nature (in-person, online, hybrid) of lessons that will take place in a term.

It is the student's responsibility to notify the instructor 24 hours prior to a missed lesson. Instructors will not make-up more than 1 lesson per term. Lessons will be made up during the scheduled make-up week at end of term, or per the instructor's schedule and space availability.

Performance Opportunities

Students are given an opportunity to perform at a date and time selected by each instructor. Instructors will provide information if a recital is planned.
