

2024-25 Untaxed Income Worksheet

2022 Untaxed Income Information

This form is used to verify the sources of untaxed income reported on your FAFSA

The law states that before awarding Federal Student Aid, Elmhurst University may ask you to confirm the information you, your spouse (if married), and your parent(s) reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, Elmhurst University will compare your FAFSA with the information on this worksheet and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You, the student, and at least one parent if a dependent student, must complete and sign this worksheet and submit this form the Office of Student Financial Services at Elmhurst University. If you have questions about verification, please call 630-617-3015 as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.
