

A Surprised Queenhood in the New Black Sun: The Life and Legacy of Gwendolyn Brooks

Wednesday, March 14, 2018

4:00 p.m.

Frick Center, Founders Lounge

Contact Information

In A Surprised Queenhood in the New Black Sun, award-winning author Angela Jackson traces the literary arc of Pulitzer Prize-winning poet Gwendolyn Brooks within the context of Brooks' life and times. At Elmhurst, Jackson will talk about the book and read from her own Pulitzer-nominated volume of poetry, It Seems Like a Mighty Long Time.

The Genevieve Staudt Intercultural Lecture